

Masinda Productions presents &
"Chimerical Continuum" #1

20/15

John Lynch

It began simply, with A Night Out on THE TOWN

We gazed up at the stars, as a streak of light ran through the glistening sky.

It burned bright, like a Fire Across the Cosmos

We followed the light, gliding between the stars.
Expecting it would eventually fade into darkness.

Though, suddenly, as if colliding with a sun,
the light began to radiate

Magnified...

Igniting the entire sky
with reflective crystals

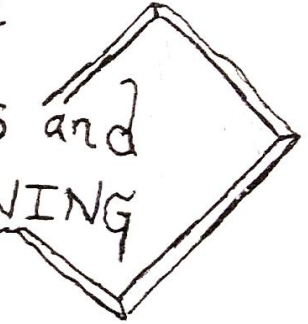

Shining...

Cracking the very reality around us.

Until all we saw,
were

MIRRORS and LIGHTNING
